

come CLOSER to the Great Lakes Seaway Trail

Welcome to the Great Lakes Seaway Trail, one of America's Byways. Travel along our 500-mile freshwater coastline in New York State and Pennsylvania to discover great American road trips. This scenic byway is a pleasant alternative to higher-speed interstate driving. Come enjoy a leisurely ride by car, on your bike, by RV, boat or motor-coach. Our distinctive way-finding signs are easy to follow on your journey along the byway. Travel information and 150 outdoor storytelling panels tell the facts, legends and lore of significant Great Lakes Seaway Trail sites.

The stretch of Lake Erie, the Niagara River, Lake Ontario and the St Lawrence River shoreline known as the Great Lakes Seaway Trail connects in many diverse and fascinating ways to America's history. Our unique landscape and historical significance have earned the trail the distinction as one of America's Byways. Enjoy the outdoors? We have four seasons of fun in the sun, snow and water.

We are ready to greet you!

NOT-TO-BE-MISSED!

Welcome to the Great Lakes Seaway Trail – National Scenic Byway

- Discover unique cultural and historic attractions
- Tour architectural masterpieces including historic cobblestones, Frank Lloyd Wright works and parks designed by Frederick Law Olmsted
- Learn about the waterways that opened up the continent for exploration; follow the front lines of the War of 1812 and the French and Indian War
- Breathe in the fresh aroma of vineyards and orchards
- Shop for treasures and unique gifts at farm markets, village shops and outlet malls
- Taste regional food favorites like cheese curd and the original Buffalo wings
- Experience exceptional natural resources, wildlife and the mighty Niagara Falls
- Enjoy the freshwater with a refreshing swim, world-class fishing, scuba-diving or take a scenic boat tour
- See 30 lighthouses showcase the region's maritime heritage

SeawayTrail.com

Key Contact: Great Lakes Seaway Trail
PO Box 660, Sackets Harbor, NY 13685
315-646-1000 lynette@seawaytrail.com

