

DOUBLE THE FUN!

Road trippers know that the fun isn't just at the destination — it's in the journey!

While traveling the historic Lincoln Highway in Illinois, detour to these nearby Route 66 attractions, diners, and quirky roadside stops for some extra road trip fun.

ILLINOIS ROCK & ROLL MUSEUM

➤ 9 W Cass Street, Joliet, IL 60432

Celebrate the musicians who have shaped rock & roll in Illinois and beyond. Explore exhibits honoring legendary artists and the state's lasting impact on music history.

GEMINI GIANT

➤ 201 Bridge Street, Wilmington, IL 60481

Before continuing your Lincoln Highway adventure, take a quick detour south to visit one of the last remaining Muffler Men on the Mother Road, then grab Route 66 souvenirs at The Landing Pad.

20 MIN
DETOUR

ROUTE 66 COMMUNITY SHIELD MONUMENT

➤ 1327 S State Street, Lockport, IL 60441

Travel just 4 miles north of the Old Joliet Prison to capture the perfect road trip photo at this massive Route 66 photo op, surrounded by locally owned shops and restaurants.

15 MIN
DETOUR

THE FORGE ADVENTURE PARK

➤ 227 Heritage Quarries Dr, Lemont, IL 60439

Indulge your adventurous side with ziplines, climbing walls, rope courses, water sports, and more adrenaline-inducing activities, all located along the historic I&M Canal.

25 MIN
DETOUR

WHITE FENCE FARM

➤ 1376 Joliet Road, Romeoville, IL 60446

If you've worked up an appetite on this mini Route 66 road adventure, feast on a hearty meal of fried chicken, corn fritters, and classic American fare. Plus, enjoy several Route 66 photo ops!

30 MIN
DETOUR

HISTORIC HIGHWAY ALIGNMENT SIGN

➤ Intersection of U.S. 30 and IL-Route 59

Whether you're an expert navigator or rely on your GPS, you'll be pleased to learn that both Route 66 and the Lincoln Highway align on U.S. 30.

